The Kinks, Add It Up

The first time that I saw you, you were modestly waiting for a bus Now you're driving around in hired limousines And you talk so upper class.

The cost is high, but it's not the only price you ultimately pay Add it up, you might have got some money But you lost me on the way

Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh

Ah, Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier Gucci, Gucci, Gucci

Add it up,
You multiplied and multiplied but what's it leading to?
Add it up,
The only thing subtracted is the love I had for you
So add it up, oh

Symbols of perversion and insanity Symbols of social immorality Symbols of economic cruelty Symbolize all what you did to me

Ah, Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier Gucci, Gucci, Gucci Cartier, Cartier

Money can't cover up the fact you're getting older every day And you can't disguise your sad little eyes that give your loneliness away

Add it up, oh Add it up, oh Add it up, oh (repeat)
