

The Kooks, Put Your Back To My Face

Put your back to my face
No love to give but I want to
And get on my high horse babe
Let me pawn your heart
Doesn't have to be a real thing
I'd settle just for a touch of your skin

Baby blue let me please touch you
Another person, another wave
Another point of view babe
Am I too good for you
Oh now you're baby blue?

Put your back to my face
No love to give but I want to
