

The Legendary Pink Dots, On The Boards

Thursday was a good day. He'd be turning up at nine, he'd be turning down the lights, he'd be breaking out the wine. Made it whoopee on the settee, shared a candle, split a line. Made it happy in the chandeliers. Mind-mind-mind-link. I think we really could get on together. Mind-mind-mind-link. My planetary choo-choo girl, you got me in a superwhirl. I'd climb out to the Milky Way. Mind-mind-mind-link
Take it away brothers.
