

The Lightning Seeds, Lucky You

You're lying again
You say you don't but then you do
I'm trying again
To build a wall around your heart
Then break it through to you
You make it happen

(chorus)
Everythings blue now, oh lucky you
oh lucky you
There's nothing to lose
So if its really true
Oh lucky you

You're chasing the moon
Reaching up to touch the stars

But you land too soon
What will it take to make you see
The way things really are You've got this far
So let it happen

(chorus)

You're lying again
Give it up and tell the truth
You can't stop the rain
It's gonna fall on every roof
I've got the proof
And only you can make it happen

(chorus)
