

The Lightning Seeds, You Bet Your Life

See those eyes are brown I wish they were blue
Take that wish away and make it come true
I know you could be wrong but maybe you're right
Take that wishaway and do what you like
A wishaway
You laugh and grab the words before they get loose
Put that wish away, in case it comes true
I wish today you'd stay, maybe tonight
You'd blow away the smoke and hold me tight
A wishaway
Oh don't you lie, I can read you're mind
I know you never would but you feel as though
You wish you could be
A wishaway
Do you feel alive, will you be alright
I hope you do, I know you do
