

The Lynns, One Of These Lonely Nights

One of these nights you're gonna come stumblin' home
Yeah, one of these nights you're gonna find yourself all alone
You may be thinkin' I'm a makin' threats
It's all just talk cause you ain't seen it yet
But, one of these nights baby I'll be gone.

You'll cry "Baby, come back baby."
One of these lonely nights.

One of these nights, you're gonna cross the line
Yeah, one of these nights I'm a gonna change my mind
Wipe these teardrops from my face,
Slip on a dress I ain't worn in ages
One of these nights I'm gonna leave ya behind

You'll cry "Baby, come back baby."

One of these lonely nights.

You may be thinkin' I'm a makin' threats
It's all just talk cause you ain't seen it yet
But, one of these nights I'm gonna leave ya behind.

You'll cry "Baby, come back baby."
One of these lonely nights.
One of these lonely nights
Lonely nights
Lonely nights
Lonely nights
Lonely nights
