

The Magic Numbers, All I See

All I see are heartaches and all I see are tears
all I see's a darkness up against this wall cannot turn you into something

All I sees's a pain and all I see is fear all I see are tears, babe couldn't climb up every wall cannot turn you into something

Oh I've been waiting for so long just to tell you I was wrong gonna find this love we had gonna try to change

just to tell you I'm the one gonna change your mind this time gonna find you here

All I see are heartaches
and you put me here to be up against this wall gonna try to make you love me

Oh I was waiting for so long just to tell you I've been wrong you see this life you had

you see this love we had gonna try to change you Got me up against this wall gonna turn you into something...
