

The Magnetic Fields, Abigail, Belle Of Kilronan

Abigail,
Can you feel my heart in the palm of your hand
And do you understand
Why I can't stay

Abigail,
An evil wind is blowing through the land
And they need every man
To drive it away

When I come home,
If I come home,
You'll be a grown woman
When I come home,
If I come home,
Don't be alone, Abigail, belle of Kilronan

Abigail's
Gonna be the beauty of County Galway
And she will live always
In a world of love

Abigail,
I'm off to the war
But you can be sure
I will know you're
What I'm fighting for...
