

The Maine, Jenny

Before I go
Please know I'm trying
Trying to be a better man
Before I leave
Please don't get angry
Just dry your eyes and take my hand

I'll make this right
Oh, I will try

Jenny don't you cry
Close your eyes
Everything is gonna be alright
You're so young and still so free
Jenny take my hand
Understand
I will try to be a better man
Without you there is no me
Jenny

There is a boy inside me running
From a man I've yet to meet
I see his face it only scares me
I hope things change eventually

I'll make this right
Oh, I'll try

Jenny don't you cry
Close your eyes
Everything is gonna be alright
You're so young and still so free
Jenny take my hand
Understand
I will try to be a better man
Without you there is no me
Jenny

I'll make this right
Oh, I will try

Jenny don't you cry
Close your eyes
Everything is gonna be alright
You're so young and still so free
Jenny take my hand
Understand
I will try to be a better man
Without you there is no me
Jenny
