

The Mavericks, The End Of The Line

You walk on higher ground
Like the holy ghost I haven't found The mighty words you speak They bounce off the strong but are heard by the weak

Their pennies just keep on coming in Their spirits are still soaking in their sins
Some say they're even born again

Chorus

See what you can find at the end of the line There's no end in time at the end of the line
There's no peace of mind at the end of the line

The time has finally come To relinquish the throne that doesn't belong For only you can tell if the pardon will come or will you burn in hell

You tried to recover dirty Stones
From love filthy games played on the road
Now it is you who stands alone

Repeat chorus

See what you can find at the end of the line
There's no end in time at the end of the line
There's no peace of mind at the end of the line
You can run but you can't hide

Their pennies just keep on coming in The spirits still soaking in his sins
Some say they're even born again

Repeat chorus
