

The Methadones, Ugly Things About You

There's something lurking behind those non-chalant eyes.
I start to ask myself
If it's really worth my time to analyze
The ugly things about you.
I've seen it come out a million times -
Your rationale means absolutely nothing to me
When I can read your calculating thoughts
That I clearly see.
I used to make a lot of excuses before,
Now I got better things to do
Than try to convince myself you're someone that you're not.
It makes me wish I never got to know -
Got to know you.
I've seen it come out a million times -
Your rationale means absolutely nothing to me
When I can read your calculating thoughts
That I clearly see.
And I...
Know there's plenty things that you'll deny,
And I...
Know saving face means telling lies.
There was a time I thought you were misunderstood
And that I saw you for the way you are,
But now I know you're moved by bitterness and spite
And the people I knew were right -
Right all along.
I've seen it come out a million times -
Your rationale means absolutely nothing to me
When I can read your calculating thoughts
That I clearly see.
And I...
Know there's plenty things that you'll deny,
And I...
Know saving face means telling lies.
And I...
And I...
And I...
And I...
