

The Moffatts, Babe Come Back To Me

Straight to my heart
The words cut me like a knife
Severing all ties
Of love in my life.
Now I sit here and stare
Looking for a way
To make time pass by
And end each day.
Baby, Baby come back to me.
I hold the chains, you hold the key
For without your love,
Will I ever be free? (ever be free)
Baby come back to me.
I toss and I turn
Deceived by pain
My face is white
It borders insane.
I've sighed and I've sought
And pushed back the tears
But to lose your love
Is my best fear.
Baby, Baby come back to me.
I hold the chains, you hold the key
For without your love,
Will I ever be free? (ever be free)
Baby come back to me.
Oh, baby.
Let me hold you tight.
Just one more night
Let me show you my love is true.
Baby, I need you.
Baby, Baby come back to me.
I hold the chains, you hold the key
For without your love,
Will I ever be free? (ever be free)
Baby, Baby come back to me. (ohhhhhh)
I hold the chains, you hold the key (come back to me)
For without your love,
Will I ever be free? (ever be free)
Baby come back to me.
