

The Moody Blues, Is This Heaven?

Walking home with you last night
You said the world is beautiful
And how things look that way when you're in love
I love this world
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven?

I opened up the letter that the
Postman gave to me this morning
Had to stop myself from shouting out
"I love this world";
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven

I know that heaven waits
For those whose love is true
I want to be there when
The age of love is come again

Tell me all about yourself
And how you came to me like in a dream
And every night I dream of you
I dream of you
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven
When I'm in your arms
Is this heaven

I know that heaven waits
For those whose love is true
I want to be there when
The age of love is come again

I sit and watch the sun go down
And in the darkness there's no sound
While in the sky tonight the stars all cry "I love you";
Are they crying out over you
'Cos you're in my heart
Is this heaven?
'Cos the story starts and ends with you
