

The Moody Blues, The Spirit

The sun and moon every day
Day and night, mark my play
See the future in the past
Try to change it or make it last
Go for broke, don't regret
Get your hands dirty get you feet wet
Take your place use me well
I'm in your hands, make me tell
A broken dream seems unkind
I can help, for I am Time

I can heal you
It's not a matter of slight
Only of sound
Let me feel for you
Then you can feel for yourself
The love all around
I can lead you
Is your soul afraid?
Afraid of what you've made?
Do you know the way the spirit goes?

All around on the wind
Distant whispers of what I bring
In the day, in the night
Locked in the words of lovers delight
If I'm lost or mislaid
Keep on looking, don't be afraid
In the eye, on the mind
I'm everywhere and yours to find
I'm not far, close at hand
I'm in you for I am Love

I can heal you
It's not a matter of slight
Only of sound
Let me feel for you
Then you can feel for yourself
The love all around
I can lead you
Is your soul afraid?
Afraid of what you've made?
Do you know the way the spirit goes?
