

The Motorhomes, Go!

Ive gotten over you
But it took time
A long time
Now Ive put you behind
And now Im fine
Oh so fine
And I loved you so
Was it good for you
Did I turn you on
Now its time to move on
I am a new star
And Im alright
Its alright
And Ive got a brand new heart
And thats a start
A good start
And I love you so
Like I always do
But then youre no good
And now I only wish I could undo
My love for you
