

The Move, Hello Susie

Everybody sat here waiting for the train to come
Just lay down a bright red carpet for her to step on Lookin' to the bend I see her waving her hands at me
Her looks were tanned and quite amazing as she ran to me

Hello Susie, hello Susie
Tell me the news about yourself
Hello Susie, hello Susie
Tell me that you've enjoyed yourself

Whoo!

Frantically she knocked me over causing such a scene
Shook the crowd enough to sway the interest from the Queen
Her black transistor socked out one o'clock radio
Completely drowned the band and loud enough to stop the show

Chorus

Yes sir rock 'n' roll the day away
(Come on everybody)
They all seem too keen to make the scene
(Come on everybody, come on everybody)
(Got to dig me just a while)

I was all at sea and threw her bags into the car
Susie took her bow and made her exit like a star
The national news took films which later made history
Her looks were tanned and quite amazing as she ran to me

Chorus
