

The Move, When Alice Comes Back To The Farm

Jenny had a bawl at me the other night
She threw it up an' drove away.
So I made a call completely outta sight
Hope to put it right today

When Alice comes back to the farm
I won't be in the cold tonight.
When Alice comes back to the farm
You know it's gonna be alright. yeah

Gimme an appointment put me in the light
That's a taste of what she needs.

Such a disappointment daddy's in the right.
Time for tearing out the weeds

When Alice comes back to the farm
I won't be in the cold tonight.
When Alice comes back to the farm,
You know it's gonna be alright, yeah.

Relax now baby that woman won't get past my door
I believe, I believe that woman won't pass my door
She won't be raisin' no alarm
Don't get around much any more
