

The Movement, Losing You

Ten thousand people fighting you
Doesn't mean to say they're right
One million people loving you
Doesn't mean give up the fight

Are you still making up your mind?
I feel I'm losing you
The ideals still here to be true
I feel I'm losing you
We could work and we could try
I feel I'm losing you

Unable to feel unity
To me it's like you've lost your heart
You're talking about your company
While people 'dying all the time

Are you still making up your mind?
I feel I'm losing you
The ideals still here to be true
I feel I'm losing you
We could work and we could try
I feel I'm losing you
