

The Muffs, Your Kiss

Run and hide, all the time
Don't know why I have no happiness, I cry
Will I ever feel I really Want to know

Far away from here I always fear
Myself and now I am alone

It's like this: I'm in your kiss
And even when I miss I'm still in your kiss

Hide away, feel the same, why today, I can't believe I'm still ok
Will I ever feel I really want to know

Am I really on I feel so wrong
Don't hate me even when I'm gone

It's like this: I'm in your kiss
And even when I miss I'm still in your kiss

You think that I'm ok no, no way
And I'll be coming thru, you'll know it
When my face turns blue

I'm so wrong and really gone don't hate me you will carry on

It's like this: I'm in your kiss
And even when I miss I'm still in your kiss

Your kiss, your kiss, your kiss, your kiss
Your kiss, your kiss, your kiss, your kiss
