The Music, Disco

Have you ever looked Across the midight sky The stars roll down The ocean floods To where the red sky first began Have you ever

And everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you And everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you And everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you

Can't dream what you gonna do now Can't dream what you gonna do now Can't dream what you gonna do now Can't dream what you gonna do now

Everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you See all the people think that They'll be forgiven And all the reasons that is true

Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there

Are you gonna be there, what you gonna do now Gonna be there, what you gonna do Are you gonna be there, what you gonna do now

Can't dream what you gonna do now Can't dream what you gonna do now baby Can't dream what you gonna do now Can't dream whaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

Everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you and everybody better get up and listen 'Caus we got something to say to you Yeah we got something to say to you

Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there Are you gonna be there

Are you gonna be there, what you gonna do now Wah wah......

Can't dream what you're gonna do now Can't dream what you're gonna do now baby Can't dream what you're gonna do now Can't dream what you're gonna do now
