

The Never Ever, In Or Out

Hey there,
I've been watching you for hours now
And I'd swear you haven't moved at all.
It's funny how you talk with your head in the clouds
but your body's still stuck with your feet on the ground.
Hey there,
I've got one thing to ask to you.

Are you in or out?
In or out?

Hey there,
Your horoscope can't hide you from the time you waste
And your new years resolutions won't cause the clocks to stop.
This city never sleeps,
I feel at home 'cause these bright night lights
Remind me that you're not alone.
Hey there, they've got one thing to ask.

Are you in or out?
In or out?
