

The Panic Channel, Loophole

Turn today new revolution slip away the noose from around my neck sailing in my confusion the captain of my shipwreck here I am

deep inside the hole I've fallen know I'm down inside myself again
I'm through the loophole
I'm through the loophole
the loophole
I'm through the loophole

the fountain's floor is blackened with the wishes that I've thrown in I found what I was searching for has been what I was searching with

here I am
deep inside the hole I've fallen
know I'm down inside myself again
I'm through the loophole
I'm through the loophole
the loophole

this is the last time, I say it's the last time I pray it's the last time I swear
this is the last time, I say it's the last time I pray it's the last time I swear
this is the last time, I say it's the last time

down inside myself again I don't know my own reflection
I'm through
I'm through the loophole
the loophole
(repeat)
