

The Piass, Pain

Fight for your right for your mind.
Bite at your enemy full of rage
Find your soul in deep inside
Shed your blood for your truth
Fight for your life for your pride.
Bite at your enemy full of wounds.
Find your self from dirty sight
Shed your sweat for your real
Go on with stand the pain.
NO escape from here.
If you get piece of joy,
you take the pain.
There's no right without duty,
wipe your tears away.
Blow your front, here's turn.
