

The Poets, Baby Blue Eyes

Firs day in spring, awakened my soul ( +1 )
A new beginning and another season to unfold
Down in the park love stood in bloom
And there we met, to shining hearts
Like sun and moon
Love came through
Baby Blue Eyes
You must be an angel (an angel)
You ended my lonely night
An made dreams I had had true
I dont want a fake romance
What if theres no second chance
Youre my Baby Blue Eyes
And now you sleep soft in my arms
I promise myself I never ever gonna let you down Flower of love let us sleep tonight and greet the morning as it arrives through the blinds
Love shines trough
Baby Blue Eyes
You must be an angel (an angel)
You ended my lonely night
An made dreams I had had true
I dont want a fake romance
What if theres no second chance
Youre my Baby Blue Eyes
Ever so often
The ground we have soften
By the quarrels that we have Theres nothing wrong here
( and ) love can believe
