

The Proclaimers, Hit The Highway

Your way
No way
Do it my way
Or hit the highway
Your way
No way
Do it my way
Or hit the highway

I respect your point of view
You've got your thoughts
I've got mine too
But you'll be out of here
If I don't hear the words I want to hear

Your way
No way
You do it my way
Or you can hit the highway

I've watched you
Backsliding
Then there's trouble
You, your always hiding

Now if I was in your shoes
I might look at me and think
"There's a fool";
But I'm not in your shoes
And I don't have to play
By your set of rules No No

Your way
Let me tell you that there's no way
No way You do it my way
Or you can hit the highway
Hit it again

Your way
No way
Do it my way
Or hit the highway
I'm stating - not negotiating
You want more
There's the door
