

The Queers, I Just Called To Say Fuck You

I've got nothing else to do
My life sucks, there's nothing new
Don't care if you love me true
Don't care you got someone new
Don't care you got someone new

What's a punk rocker to do
I just called to say fuck you

I'm just kinda feeling blue
Rememberin' what we used to do
Don't care if you love me true
Don't care you got someone new
Don't care you got someone new

What's a punk rocker to do
I just called to say fuck you
