

The Queers, Journey To The Center Of Your Empty

Journey to the center of your empty fucking skull
Listen up and then jump off a bridge
You're stupid and useless - the village idiot
Face the facts, you're dumber than my fridge
When you start talking, people scream and run out of the room
When you were young, I bet your mommy traveled on a broom
So take me to your leader - you stupid human loon
I hate you skinhead oi-boys
You fucking Nazi goons

Journey to the center of your empty fucking skull
You're boring and your conversation's dull
Boys respect the girls when you're out on the hunt
The brown spots the vagina all the rest of her's the cunt
The boys are all such toughies
Hangin' in a pack
They try to look like Hitler youth
I think I'm gonna gag
They wanna run the country
Now that would be a hoot
'Cause these morons couldn't handle a fucking paper route

Journey to the center of your empty fucking skull
You human House of Horrors - go fall down a well
You're stupid and useless - the village idiot
To top it off you even fucking smell
On the scale of evolution
You're equal to a snail
Your brain is lost forever
Kinda like the Holy Grail
Like a monkey on acid, your life is never dull
On a journey to the center of your empty fucking skull
