The Ramones, Somebody Put Something In My [

Somebody Somebody Put Something In My Drink Somebody

Another night out on the street Stopping for my usual seat Oh, bartender, please

Tanqueray n tonic's my favorite drink I don't like anything colored pink That just stinks...it's not for me

It feels like somebody put something Somebody put something in my drink Somebody put something Somebody put something

Blurred vision and dirty thoughts Feel (out of place), very distraught Feel something coming on Kick the jukebox, slam the floor Drink, drink, drink some more I can't think Hey! What's in this drink?

It feels like somebody put something
Somebody put something in my drink
Somebody put something
Somebody put something in my drink
Somebody put something
Somebody put something in my drink
Somebody put something in my drink
Somebody put something...in my drink...in my drink...in my drink...in my drink

So you think it's funny A college prank Goin' insane for something to drink Feel a little dry

Oh, I couldn't care what you think of me Cause somebody put something in my drink I can't think Hey! Give me a drink

It feels like somebody put something Somebody put something in my drink

Somebody put something Somebody put something in my drink
