

The Rasmus, Ten Black Roses

Life is like a boat in a bottle
Try to sail you can't with no air
Day by day it only gets harder
Try to scream but nobody cares
Through the glass you see the same faces
Hear their voices fade like they're drown
When your life's a boat in a bottle
You're surrounded drifting alone

Don't leave me now stay another day
with me

Refrain:

When you're sad and no one knows it
I'll send you black roses
When your heart is dark and frozen
I'll send you black roses

Far away we wait for each other
I'm still on that road to nowhere
Kiss yourself for me in the mirror
Tie a black rose into your hair

Don't lose your faith share another night
with me

When you're sad and no one knows it
I'll send you black roses
When your heart is dark and frozen
I'll send you black roses
