

The Rasmus, Vibe

call me your lover if you hang around with me tonight i'll show you how to do something wicked you're looking pretty and you know that we should keep going on cause we ain't got no time to polish your nails no time to put more make up on turn around and you will find me to guide you everywhere that you go so if believe that loneliness is braking you so this place is the right one where i'm gonna take you i've gotta feeling i know you still like him bad tonight at the party no one's going to be sad
