

The Raveonettes, Blush

All I want from you is everything
I ever wanted for just one night
And all i care for is for you
To leave me alone
When the morn comes
Take everything we had away from you
And you away from me
I can't keep you
I can't hold you tight
I can't love you
See, despite my hurtful ways
I can still make you blush
Tremble lips speak
Sound screams
Lover's death
It's time you leave
And all i want from you is all I took
I can't keep you
I can't hold you tight
I can't love you
See, despite my hurtful ways
I can still make you blush
