The Raveonettes, Sad Transmission

I wanna taste you
I wanna feel you
I wanna hold you tight
Just let me tease you
Just let me eye you
Pretend that you don't care

Intense moment
When our eyes crash
And from the wreck I emerge
With all the love
You ever dreamed of
Devoted to you yeah

Oh let me hold you for one last time

Your heartbeat stops When I tell you That lovers always part A sad transmission Brought to you by Someone who doesn't care
