

The Real Mckenzie's, Droppin' Like Flies

I recall back in '79 I was just a wee kid livin' in a dive didn't drink, didn't dance, didn't ever smoke hash but it changed when I heard the clash and you know I needed more so I got up and out to the record store I bought all the records i could afford an' I played em all on my stereo this is a song saluting punkrockers rise and what they did to change the times but with such a lifestyle they're burnin'
on both sides
now they're droppin' like flies all those old punk rock guys I became a fan & I remain that way and to this day, I'm still blown away those bands just cut me to the bone like the damned, the pistols & the ramones now we just wanna say they made us what we are today so now every time we play we remember those of yesterday
this is a song saluting punkrockers rise
on both sides
well I became a fan & I remain that way and to this day, I'm still blown away and then theres me I'm not dead yet but never ever know I could be next
this is a song saluting punkrockers rise
and what they did to change the times
on both sides
