The Rembrandts, Beautiful Thing

I'd like to teach the world to sing A song that don't mean anything So we can sit and hum it all day Sometimes I think I think too much When I feel I'm losin' touch Well I've got just the record to play Let everybody know That Rock 'n Roll is King Let everybody know It's a beautiful thing Oh yeh They're fightin' here, they're fightin' there Blowin' stuff up everywhere Now why can't we all just get along Gotta ring the bell and blow the horn The fabric of our lives are torn But we can mend it all with a song Let everybody know That Rock 'n Roll is King Let everybody know It's a beautiful thing Oh yeh (music) Everybody sing La la la la la la Alright I want everyone to sing La la la la la la Okay Now if you want to take a trip A journey that you won't forget You just have to let love in your heart And if you do I'm tellin' you You're gonna find a way that's true The light that guides you home in the dark Let everybody know That Rock 'n Roll is King Let everybody know It's a beautiful thing Oh yeh Let everybody know There's a song they can sing Let everybody know It's a beautiful thing Yeh Alriaht La la la la la la la Let everybody sing La la la la la la la I want everybody La la la la la la

Let everybody La la la la la la la Yeeeeeehhhhh
