The Replacements, Left Of The Dial

Read about your band in some local page Didn't mention your name, didn't mention your name Sweet Georgia breezes, safe, cool and warm I headed up north, you headed north

On and on and on and on What side are you on? On and on and on and on What side are you on?

Weary voice that's laughin', on the radio once We sounded drunk, never made it on Passin' through and it's late, the station started to fade Picked another one up in the very next state

On and on and on what side are you on?
On and on and on and on and...

Pretty girl keep growin' up, playin' make-up, wearin' guitar Growin' old in a bar, ya grow old in a bar Headed out to San Francisco, definitely not L.A. Didn't mention your name, didn't mention your name

And if I don't see ya, in a long, long while I'll try to find you Left of the dial
