

The Reunion Show, Character Assassination

I don't want to die
'til i'm twenty-six
Live in my house
Way up in the hills

You're never, never, never Going to gain control
Your life is empty
If you knew what I knew,
It's character assassination

Teenage suicide, ha ha
I'll think, i'll overdose
Cover of rolling stone,
4 lines I'm comatose

My wife threw out my record collection
Through them into our olympic pool
Walked in on my secret love affair
With my thirteen year old whore
She said "I don't want to talk about it, you're just l.a. scum"
