

The Reunion Show, Nobody

I'm talking to a space ship
I'm planning out an acid trip
While digging wires through the ground
I find a way to not be found
I learned to walk on water too
Defy the laws of gravity in backyard pools
The summer sun has split in two
You can take a piece and i will keep a piece of you
Nobody will be hearing from me
I found a way to make myself disappear
Nobody will be hearing from me
Nobody will see me, i'll still be right here
It must have been poor chemistry
Or lack of a philosophy
Elusive yet in front of me
Explosive but what could it be
Nobody will be hearing from me
I found a way to disappear
Nobody will be hearing from me
Nobody will see me i'll still be right here
I'm riding on that spaceship
I'm talking through that acid trip
While digging wires through the ground
I found a way to not be found
