

The Rubyz, Staring At The Sun

Hey Alexis, hey Marissa
It's Cammie up on the phone
Pick up, I'm wonderin' if ya
Wanted to hang this lazy summer day
The ocean's calling, calling our names
Yeah let's go

Chorus:

Look up, look up everyone
Everybody's staring at the sun
Get up, get up, have some fun
It's summer time, the party's just begun
Look up, look up everyone
Everybody, everybody
Look up, look up everyone
Everybody's staring at the sun
You grab the camera
I'll bring the shades
We can wear our bathing suits
And lay out all day
Play in the water
And wave to our friends walking by
Smile for the picture
Have the time of our lives

Chorus

You're all invited to the beach
Chicago, Nashville, NYC
So come on now and kick it with me
Atlanta, LA, let's go crazy

Chorus:

Look up, look up everyone
Everybody's staring at the sun
Get up, get up, have some fun
It's summer time, the party's just begun
Look up, look up everyone
Everybody, everybody
Look up, look up everyone
Everybody's staring at the sun
Everybody's staring at the sun
