

The Score, Fighter

Give me the lights, give me the hate give me the pressure
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide pain is pleasure
I hear the wolves calling my name no surrender
Here only the strong survive

Don't need a sign, nothing divine's gonna save me
I'm a machine, building a dream is what shaped me
Breaking the door, waging a war, no escaping
Watch me as I touch the sky

The blood I taste, is the price I pay
All my scars will fade
The monsters in head will become the prey

I'm a fighter, cutthroat I'm a winner
Stone cold, my heart is the trigger
I'm a fighter, one shot heavy hitter
Can't stop I'm a natural killa

I am a lion, fear is a lamb to the slaughter
Cut and I bleed, I don't retreat, I ain't a martyr
Killing the dark, I am the light growing stronger
Watch me as I come alive

The blood I taste, is the price I pay
Every blow I take
Nothing ever hurts when you feel no pain

They say worlds gonna forsake me
Their poison in my ears won't shake me
Feel my inhibitions fading
Rising up, rising up they ain't gonna break me
