The Script, Live Like We're Dying

Sometimes we fall down and cant get back up we're hiding behind skin thats to tough how come we dont say I love you enough till its to late, its not too late Our hearts are hungry for a food that wont come we could make a feast from these crumbs and we're all staring down the barrel of a gun so if your life flashed before you, what would you wish you would've done Yeah...we gotta start lookin at the hand of the time weve been given here this all we got and we gotta start livin it every second counts on a clock thats tickin' gotta live like we're dying Yeah... we only got 86 4 100 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away we gotta tell 'em that we lovem' while we got the chance to say gotta live like we're dying And if your plane fell out of the skies who would you call with your last goodbyes should be so careful who we live out our lives so when we long for absolution there'll be no one on the line Yeah...we gotta start lookin at the hand of the time weve been given here this all we got and we gotta start livin it every second counts on a clock thats tickin' gotta live like we're dying Yeah... we only got 86 4 100 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away we gotta tell 'em that we lovem' while we got the chance to say gotta live like we're dying Yeah... we only got 86 4 100 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away we gotta tell 'em that we lovem' while we got the chance to say gotta live -- like we're dying We never know a good thing till its gone you never see a crash until its head on all these people right when we're dead wrong you never know a good thing till its gone Yeah...we gotta start lookin at the hand of the time weve been given here this all we got and we gotta start livin it every second counts on a clock thats tickin' gotta live like we're dying Yeah... we only got 86 4 100 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away we gotta tell 'em that we lovem' while we got the chance to say gotta live like we're dying Like we're dying oh -- like we're dying x2 Yeah... we only got 86 4 100 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away we gotta tell 'em that we lovem' while we got the chance to say gotta live like we're dying
