

The Sheer, Love Is The Law

So suddenly you are in space and time
Open your heart and don't be so blind
Listen to love

You don't even know what you mean to me
The life that I knew means nothing to me, now

(Chorus)
Everyday brings something more
Every little thing worth fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law (2x)

You're laughing at all of the things I say
Well I was the one like you yesterday
Listen to love

You'll be the fool when it's said and done
And I'll be the joke to just let you run, 'round

(Chorus)
Everyday brings something more
Every little thing worth fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law (2x)

(Chorus)
Everyday brings something more
Every little thing worth fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law (2x)

You just need more time
You just need more time
To figure it out

(Chorus)
Everyday brings something more
Every little thing worth fighting for
Love is the law, love is the law (2x)
