

The Sins Of Thy Beloved, A Tormented Soul

A Tormented Soul

My own little world I hide away I feel no pain I hide away never to talk
and never to walk no more
This is my fate this is my choice I have ruined your life
never to talk
and never to walk no more I've played like a fool this is my life
I take it all back
never to talk
and never to walk no more I vanish through the night I travel through my life I am sinking in the earth never to talk and never to walk no more in the shadows of a tormented soul there conceals a murky threshold eldritch phantasm reveals the yearning for infinitude invades My beloved tremble in fear my detest against thee who's a plagues Finally there is peace in thine soul my resurge will reveal ye fate in the misty twilight I appear invisible I conquer Solely I fade with the winter solely I reveal my secrets infinitude I conceal in thy phantasm infinitude my phantasm is of thee in my grandeur I proceed my voyage in my grandeur my resurge is of thee my resurge will sway through dimensions my resurge will reflect thine demeanour
