The Smashing Pumpkins, Eye

I lie, I wait I stop, I hesitate I am, I breathe I meant, I think of me

Is it any wonder I can't sleep? All I have is all you gave to me Is it any wonder I found peace through you? Turn to the gates of heaven, to myself be damned Turn away from light It's not enough, just a touch It's not enough

I taste, I love I come, I bleed enough I hate, I'm not I was, I want too much

Is it any wonder I can't sleep? All I have is all you gave to me Is it any wonder I found peace through you? Turn to the gates of heaven, to myself be damned Turn away from light It's not enough, just a touch It's not enough, just a touch
