

The Style Council, Can You Still Love Me?

Can you still love me?
Take it -

I look into your eyes and suddenly I see
The changing colours of a world of mystery
I stare so deep until I finally come 'round
Still never knowing what is up and what is down
Can you still love me?
When my love breaks down
Can you still love me?
Even when I'm down

(Oh, my - baby burn this house up - now)

I look into your heart and suddenly I feel
Those promises I made are nothing till there real
I wonder if you can, or like to be alone

A love that set me free to live my life in hope
Can you still love me?

I look into your eyes and suddenly I see
The changing colours of a world of mystery
I stare so deep until I finally come 'round
Still never knowing what is up and what is down
Can you still love me?

Oh, my - baby burn this house up - now

Can you still love me?
