

The Submarines, Swimming pool

Heavy is the mind that can't be told
When it's time to let it go
Heavy is the heart filled so full with sorrow
Worry can't help a single thing but
When we're out of our heads
At least we're out in the open
The warning signs of a troubled mind
It's all the things we can't see and can't hide
But when you kiss me in ways I've forgotten,
Love is a swimming pool with no bottom
We've got to hold on the water is rising
And all we ever want is to be loved
Whether sun or stars above
All our trouble all our toil
Is towards no greater earthly goal
So never mind what logic says I say
Logic a guy who's outta empty his pockets
All we want is an open mind you know the Kind you can earn and can't buy
And when you kiss me in ways I've forgotten,
Love is a swimming pool with no bottom
We've got to hold on the water is rising
Everyone spends a little time
Fighting the drift back out to the deep end
When I asked you to throw me a line
That's when you pulled me out by the heart strings
We thought the weight of the world would have us sinking like a stone
If we should ever lose our hold
But we rise to the surface the moment
That we know there's nothing to fear down below
When you kiss me in ways I've forgotten,
Love is a swimming pool with no bottom
We've got to hold on the water is rising
When you kiss me in ways I've forgotten,
Love is a swimming pool with no bottom
We've got to hold on the water is rising
