

The Subways, Don't Look Back

Close my eyes - see your reflection in my life - you always are now I know my true direction cause I see your shining star

Ill never fall in love again you are the one I need eye to eye and face to face

hold me-
you dont have to go this way
hold me-
dont look back

been so lang - to get the reception of your smile - i keep in view

hold me-
hold me-

all your love and sweet affection makes me feel so close to you
