

The Subways, Light Up My Life

diamond eyes, shiny black raven hair hypnotized, I could only stop and stare like an apparition she belongs to me I never saw a woman with such mystery

I will never let you go cause follow

light up my life
remember me, remember you - oh lord

voices through my head like a distance choir i had never known

such a lust for desire

then again
I was just a mortal man devil or angel what I wanted her to be

cause I follow
