

The Sugarcubes, Happy Nurse

Bjrk

After watching this patient lady
I noticed that she was a poor nurse
She knows exactly what people need
Without them having to tell her
She's a poor nurse
She knows what you hunger for
And feeds it to you

Einar

The nurse was also my friend
She gave me friendship in abundance
Smothered me with hugs and kisses
I've got used to her injection
And they often send me stupid
It could become a habit
She gave me friendship in abundance
Smothered me with hugs and kisses

Bjrk

She invites me to a soft room
And hands me a piece of confidence
She injects me with a dose of warmth
It dawns upon me that humans are the only drug
She's a poor nurse, she knows what you
Hunger for, and feeds it to you

Einar

But then I bought myself a
Small rubber dingy when she told me
He who was up a mountain
Because she wanted everyone
To give her, love and affection
Her breast was, great and soft
Incredibly great, great and soft
And could squirt, a long way!
A great distance...

She's a poor nurse, this careless woman
Don't hate her, she's a poor nurse
She knows what you, hunger for
And feeds it to you, she's a poor nurse
This careless woman, don't hate her
She's a poor nurse.
