

The Summer Obsession, Where You Belong

Don't say another word,
Put my finger to your lips and press
(and press)

God is not watching us,
(watching us)
we can do whatever we want
so let's,
so let's.
It's been so long, so long
It's been so long, been so long
Stop your resistance, this is where you belong.

This is where you belong.

It's been so long, so long
It's been so long, it's been so long,
Stop your resistance, this is where you belong.

This is where you belong.

This is where you belong.

Stop your resistance, this is where you belong.

(This is, this is where you belong.)
