

The Swan Princess, Far Longer Than Forever

How to broke a power of curse
In this how sadly night?
My heart is in despair
It sheads tears
Come, dreams shall get come true.
For longer than forever
You'll be in my memory
And my love won't fall asleep, no
Because you're it ruler
For longer than forever
The common days will come back
Because only you exist within my heart
Dawn is linked with morning
Fate has connected them for centuries
Like lovers into day and night for ever
For longer than forever
Our flame of hearts won't abate
The time won't destroy love
When it is in us.
